

Grace on Campus Men's Small Group Leader Blurbs ('16 - '17)

Austin Chiang (Working)
austin.ychiang@gmail.com

Hi!

My name is Austin, and I graduated from UCLA a few years ago. I currently work in the software industry and have the privilege of serving on staff at GOC.

It is said that "A mighty weapon in the hand of God is a holy man." I am looking to walk and grow alongside a few guys who desire to make much of Jesus Christ in their lives. Personal holiness and the spiritual disciplines will be a focus. My prayer is that by His grace we would be men who labor to spend and be spent for Christ, for He alone is worth it.

Christopher Law (Working)

Yo, I'm Chris! If you're thinking about small group, definitely join one. It's an awesome way to get to know other guys to grow alongside and run this Christian race together. Hit me up if you have any question or if you wanna talk, eat or hang! I'd love to get to know you.

David Chow (Grad)
davidjchow@gmail.com

Hello! My name is David and I enjoy cooking, eating, photography, and good movies. I studied International Development Studies at UCLA and enjoyed doing some cool things with the aerospace industry. There may be nothing more important in your college years than your reading, studying, and applying of God's Word to your life. John 17:17 says, "Sanctify them in your truth; your word is truth." That's exactly what this small group aims to do – to be sanctified in the truth. This year we'll journey together through the Scriptures and look at the Christian life from a variety of perspectives. It'll be deep and challenging, but it'll also be fun and encouraging, and there will be numerous surprises spread throughout the year. I would be delighted to have you join this small group! Let me know if you're interested!

Davin Hau (Working)
dhau@ucla.edu

Hello! My name is Davin and I just graduated from UCLA and am currently working as an engineer. I'm just a guy who's trying to strive harder after Christ. I also love getting to know people, so don't hesitate to ask me to hang out or grab a meal together!

Eric Lan (Working)
erictylan@gmail.com

The Lord has called us to grow in our love for Him via our relationships with each other through the church. Our goal will be to learn what Scripture says in order to care for one another and push each other towards a greater love and commitment for Christ. Come talk to me if you're interested!

Geoffrey Ng (Working)
geong543@gmail.com

Hi there! My name is Geoffrey, but everyone here calls me Geo. I graduated from UCLA a few years ago, but stuck around GOC because I absolutely love serving here and watching you guys grow in your love for the Lord. This year in small group, we'll focus on living a worshipful lifestyle. As Christians, we can err on pursuing external obedience while forgetting to check our hearts before the Lord. In small group, we will encourage each other to follow Rom 12:2, to live a transformed life that begins with "the renewal of your mind". Let me know if you would like to join our small group, and regardless, I hope to meet you soon!

Hi! If this is your first time reading, I want to start off by giving you a warm welcome to Grace on Campus. I'm a recent graduate and am working in LA. My essential goal in small group is to hopefully keep each of my small groupies accountable as we live life throughout college. I hope to build a love for Christ through reading and understanding scripture. For this year, I'm hoping to go through the old testament as I personally think that there's so much meat in there. As a side note, I'm an amateur photographer and I really like sushi/super burritos. Please don't hesitate to contact me or say hi to me because I'm here to simply welcome you. Thank you for reading!

Jeremy Birch (Working)

Hey, fellas!

I graduated recently from UCLA and am currently working as an EMT as I prepare for grad school. I have the pleasure of serving on staff here at GOC, and I'm looking forward to getting to know all of you as we worship and serve God together.

In his second letter to the Corinthians, Paul writes: "Therefore we also have as our ambition, whether at home or absent, to be pleasing to Him." I pray this year to continue growing in exactly this—that the greatest ambition of my life would be to bring a smile to the face of my Lord and Savior. Hit me up if you'd like to talk about small group! I'd absolutely love to run the race alongside you this year.

Joseph Zhu (5th-year)
josephzhu3@gmail.com

Hello! My name is Joe and I'm a 5th year Economics major. I enjoy getting all the gains, playing volleyball, basketball, cooking (if time permits), and just hanging out with friends. To start off the year, I wanted to go over developing a greater love for Christ and the Bible. Let me know if you are interested in joining small group, getting all the gains (both physical and spiritual), have any questions, or just want to hang out and talk! It will be a joy for me to get to know you!

Kyle De Guzman (Working)
kyledeguzman@ucla.edu

Hey friends,

Thank you for considering small groups for the upcoming year. Seriously, you won't regret being in one! I just graduated from UCLA and am currently taking a few gap years before, Lord willing, attending medical school. I love to play music, eat, play basketball, and simply spend time with others. More importantly, I love to grow alongside other guys in our understanding of who God is through Scripture and seeing Him work in our lives through that. There's nothing better than fellowship in the Word! If you are interested in being a part of that, please don't hesitate to hit me up. I look forward to meeting you!

Raymond Fung (Grad)
rayfung1027@gmail.com

Hello there,

I'm in my last year of seminary and I'm one of the undershepherds here at GOC. I also serve as the Short Term Ministry Coordinator at Grace Church.

This year, my small group will be composed of one-on-one hang outs, guys-only small group meetings, and joint hangouts with my wife's small group. We would love to get to know you and serve you in any way that we can.

Richard Liang (3rd-year)
liang.richardc@gmail.com

Hey there! My name is Richard, but you might hear some people call me Richie. I'm a third year Physiological Science major, Public Health minor from the Bay Area. I've seen small groups make huge impacts on people's lives (including my own) in innumerable ways, and so I really hope you check out a small group! One goal for our small group is that we'll study the Bible together to examine how our faith applies to our exciting, but often challenging time of college life. But enough about me, I want to get to know you! If you have any questions or just want to hang out, shoot me an email or find me at GOC or church--I'd love to sit down with you to chat :) Please ask the other awesome guys on this blurb sheet about joining a small group too!

Ryan Javier (Working)
ryanj_44@msn.com

Hi everyone!

My hope for us in small group this year is that we might seek to "walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called" (Eph. 4:1) by "flee[ing] youthful passions and pursu[ing] righteousness, faith, love and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart." (2 Tim 2:22) If you ever want to talk, feel free to hit me up. I'm always down to play some sports, grab a bite, play some video games, or just sit back and chill. Looking forward to running this race alongside some of you!

Tim Ushijima (Working)
tim.ushijima@gmail.com

Hey guys, my name is Tim Ushijima and I'm a PhD student here at UCLA as well as working as civil engineer in the area. This coming school year I'm teaching the evangelism class (Gospel Proclamation a.k.a. GP) but would also love to have a small group of guys of any age. We'll be flexible but right now I'm thinking of studying through the book Holiness by J.C. Ryle. Come talk to me if you're interested in that or in evangelism or just want to hang out!
